Dear Declan,

You will recall that we were asked in the past if we could help in relation to the possible location of the body of Captain Robert Nairac as a result of an approach made by his mother to the Secretary of State for Northern Ireland.

Mrs. Nairac has now written to thank the Secretary of State for the efforts he had made on her behalf and we have been given a copy of the letter. This is now attached for information.

Yours sincerely,

Noel Ryan

Dear Mr King. 2.

Thank you for your kind letter & for the trouble you have taken in making inquiries for us.

We realise the difficulties and complexities and we are glad to know that you will get in touch immediately if there ~~are~~ ^{is} any information.

The sudden attention of the "Media" is very difficult to cope with when one is unprepared.

May I say how much we admire your perseverance and patience in trying to solve the terrible problem of Northern Ireland.

Yours very sincerely,
Barbara Nairne.
