Laird to name 'killers'

Laird to name Quinn 'killers'

A Northern Ireland peer has said he plans to name the alleged killers of Cullyhanna man Paul Quinn.

Lord Laird says he will use parliamentary privilege in the House of Lords to name those he believes were behind the killing of the 21-year-old.

Mr Quinn died after a prolonged and merciless beating at the hands of a gang at a farm building in Monaghan last month.

His family believe republicans lured him there and killed him, a claim which has been denied by Sinn Fein.

Lord Laird claims the attackers are senior Irish Republican Army (IRA) members but the murder was not sanctioned by the organisation`s army council.
